2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner developed love affairs with the victim girl through instagram and by false promise misbehaved with her and committed offences constituting under Section 5(L) and 6 of the POCSO Act. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Due to the previous enmity this false case has been foisted against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner developed love affair with the victim girl and also committed sexual assault upon her. The petitioner has one previous case. Investigation has been completed and charge sheet has been filed and the case is pending before the trial Court in S.C.No.2 of 2026 for framing of charges. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.
