The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 25(1A) of Arms Act, 1959 in Crime No. 22 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 30.04.2025 at about 9.30 a.m., based on the secret information, the respondent police were in patrol duty, they found that the petitioner and other accused were standing on the roadside with aruval causing fear and threat to the general public. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Section 25(1A) of Arms Act, 1959 in Crime No. 22 of 2025. He would further submit that the petitioner has five previous cases and the investigation is completed and charge sheet is filed. He would further submit that the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that investigation is completed and charge sheet is also filed and though the petitioner has five previous cases, in all cases bail was granted to him, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a
