MMDR Act, in Crime No.85 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.05.2026 the petitioners were illegally transported Red sand in a tipper lorry during the police usual inspection. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Co-accused has been granted bail. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. The accused persons are illegally transported red sand. They escaped from the scene of occurrence. 6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, considering the quantity and nature of minerals involved, even according to the prosecution the all the persons escaped from the place of occurrence and they only seized the vehicle along with minerals, though the petitioners have some previous cases, in all those cases the petitioners were granted bail, and and considering all other facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
