respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 303(2) NH, 351(3) of BNS, 2023, and Section 4 of TNPWH Act, in Crime No.267 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 27.05.2026, due to property dispute, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her husband in filthy language and attacked her with a wooden log and threatened them with dire consequences and also committed the theft of gold earring and Mangalyam chain. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to property dispute, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her husband in filthy language and attacked her with a wooden log and threatened them with dire consequences and also committed the theft of gold earring and Mangalyam chain and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the third petitioner and the first petitioner has 3 previous cases and the second petitioner has 2 previous cases.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and there is a property dispute between the parties and the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the third petitioner and though the petitioners 1 & 2 have some previous cases, in those cases, they were released on bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance,
