2. The case of the prosecution is that due to love affair, the petitioner has sexual intercourse with the defacto complainant forcibly at various times, due to which the defacto complainant has become pregnant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that co-accused were granted bail. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 417, 376 and 506(1) of IPC in Crime No. 22 of 2024. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the age of the defacto complainant as well as petitioner and relationship between the parties and alleged occurrence took place on 05.08.2023; however FIR has been registered only on 27.05.2024 and co-accused were granted bail and as the FIR has been registered on 27.05.2024, by this time, investigation might have been completed and also the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
