The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 304(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 349 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with four other accused persons, allegedly trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant by breaking open the doors, assaulted the defacto complainant, committed theft of the jewels kept in the bureau, and snatched the chain of the defacto complainant. Hence, a case has been registered against the accused persons for the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is an unnamed accused and based on the confession of co-accused only, the petitioner has been arrayed as accused. He would further submit that co-accused were granted bail. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Section 304(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 349 of 2025. He would further submit that the petitioner has fifteen previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the petitioner is an unnamed accused and based on the confession of co-accused only, the petitioner has been arrayed as accused and co-accused were granted bail and though the petitioner has fifteen previous cases in all cases the petitioner was granted bail, and though the

FIR has been registered in the year 2025, so far the respondent police have not taken any steps to secure the accused, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Aravakurichi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Aravakurichi, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during

[e] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
