The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 351(3) of BNS Act and Section 75 of Juvenile Justice Act in Crime No. 185 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.03.2026 at about 5.30 p.m., when the defacto complainant's son and daughter were returning to home, the petitioner wrongfully restrained them and he pushed down the children, assaulted and threatened them and also attempted to throw stone on the defacto complainant's son's head and by hearing the cry of the child, the defacto complainant and his wife arrived at the place and thereafter, the petitioner fled from the scene. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 351(3) of BNS Act and Section 75 of Juvenile Justice Act in Crime No. 185 of 2026. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous case and also the investigation is completed. He would further submit that the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous case and also the investigation is completed, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following
