The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 16, 17 of the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 in Crime No. 152 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information, when the defacto complainant/VAO and the respondent police have conducted a search, they found that in the bricks company, running by the petitioner, juvenile and bonded labours were working. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (CrI.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the Sections 16, 17 of the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 in Crime No. 152 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has two previous cases, which are not similar in nature. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that though the petitioner has two previous cases, the same are not similar kind of offences and in all cases the petitioner was granted bail and considering all other factors, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
