2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.04.2026, when the victim girl was alone in their house, the petitioner asked her some drinking water. At that time, the petitioner entered into the house and grabbed the victim's hand and sexually harassed the victim. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Due to previous enmity, this case has been foisted against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner watched the movement of the victim's parents and when the victim was alone in their house, he entered into the house, under the guise of asking drinking water, he sexually harassed the victim girl. The petitioner has no previous case. Investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before concerned Court. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before the concerned Court, the petitioner has no previous case, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Sessions Judge, Principal Special Court for Exclusive Trial of Cases under POCSO Act Cases, Theni, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the learned Sessions Judge, Principal Special Court for Exclusive Trial of Cases under POCSO Act Cases, Theni, at 10.30 a.m., on every Monday for a period of eight weeks, thereafter as and when required for
