ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 230 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners and other accused attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log/stick and stones, due to which the complainant sustained bleeding injury on his head and also threatened him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 230 of 2026. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that A2 has one previous case and A3 has three previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and though the first petitioner/A2 has one previous case and the second petitioner/A3 has three previous cases, in all cases bail was granted to them, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
