2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.05.2026, at about 10.0 p.m, the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and broke open the bureau with an iron rod and stolen a sum of Rs.2 lakhs. On seeing the son of the defacto complainant, he pushed him down and fled away from the scene of occurrence. When the same was enquired by the elders of the village, the petitioner pulled a tuft of the hair of the defacto complainant, pushed her down and caused criminal intimidation. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case and he has no way connected in the above said incident. 4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner committed the theft of Rs.2 lakhs and the amount was not yet recovered and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
