2. Heard the learned counsel on either side.

3. The petitioner's husband is a life convict and he is serving sentence at Central Prison, Trichy. A representation was made by the petitioner stating that she is suffering from serious ailments and she required the physical and moral support of her husband. This representation came to be rejected by the first respondent through the impugned proceedings dated 03.06.2026 on the ground that the report of the Probation Officer has not been received. Aggrieved by the same, the present writ petition has been filed before this Court.

4. The learned counsel for the State of Tamil Nadu (Criminal Side) on instructions submitted that the convict has undergone sentence of six years, seven months and four days and was granted emergency leave on seven occasions and ordinary leave on one occasion.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the reason for which the ordinary leave has been sought for and considering the fact that on earlier occasions, the convict was granted
