2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information on 21.05.2026 the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence, where they found the accused persons are in possession of 1.450 kgs. of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The respondent police registered the case against the petitioner for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner along with other accused having possession of 1.450 kgs. of Ganja. The petitioner is a history sheeted. The petitioner has two previous case. Investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on
