disputes between the parties and also to ensure that no technical objections are raised against the appellant in the Second Appeal.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the contesting respondent has no serious objection to the amendment petition being allowed. He would further submit that, at this stage, the parties may accept that each of them is entitled to a 50% share in the suit property and, if some accommodation is shown, they may also work out the mode of actual division. Failing such settlement, at least the preliminary decree can be confirmed.

4. In view of the above, this CMP is allowed. The learned counsel for the plaintiff/appellant is permitted to carry out the necessary amendments in the plaint and file a clean copy before this Court on or before 23.06.2026.

5. Post the matter on 23.06.2026 for reporting settlement or for further orders.
