2. The case of the prosecution is that the first accused trespassed into the defacto complainant's house by breaking back side door and stolen 4 ½ sovereign jewels from the house. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Previously, the first accused sold his property to the petitioner. Except the seller buyer relationship, there is no connection between them. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. The accused persons committed theft of gold jewels by breaking open the doors of the defacto complainant's house. This petitioner has been implicated on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused. The A1 had given money to the petitioner for loan purpose. The petitioner has no previous case. Investigation is still pending. He vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
