ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

CRL OP(MD). No.11620 of 2026

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471 and 474 of IPC, in Crime No.33 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that A1, who is the husband of the petitioner received a sum of Rs.12 lakhs on various dated by giving a false promise that he would secure a job in Canada. Thereafter, he neither secured a job nor repaid the amount. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that this is the second anticipatory bail application and the earlier petition filed by the petitioner was disposed of by this Court on 19.06.2026 and A1 was already arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the offence committed by the accused is grave in nature and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. He would further submit that A1 was already arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and the petitioner herein is only the wife of A1 who is said to have prime accused and even according to the prosecution, the alleged occurrence was took place on 31.03.2023 and FIR was registered on 04.11.2024, by this time, the material part of the investigation might have been completed, however, the respondent police has not taken any steps to secure the accused and A1 was already arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
