2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information on 16.05.2026 the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence, where they found the accused persons are in possession of 1.050 kilograms of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Though the quantity involved is not commercial quantity, no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and the entire contraband have been recovered from A1. This petitioner has been implicated on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused. Co-accused in this case have been released on bail. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The entire contraband has been recovered from A1. On their confession statement other accused persons have been implicated in this case. The petitioner has four previous cases. Investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed the grant of
