ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 417 and 505(1) of IPC, 1860, in Crime No.112 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the first accused introduced the petitioner to the defacto complainant in the year 2018. The petitioner and other accused received a sum of Rs.7,00,000/- from the defacto complainant for securing job. Thereafter, he neither secured job nor repaid the amount. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is still pending and the offences are grave in nature and the petitioner has no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and even according to the case of prosecution the alleged occurrence took place in the year 2018 and the First Information has been registered on 16.03.2026 and by this
