The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 419, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 109, 120B of IPC, in Crime No. 40 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during revenue enquiry, on 12.07.2023, it came to know that the petitioners along with one Saivathurai and others fabricated the sale deed dated 27.02.2013 by impersonating two deceased persons, namely, Mohammed Basheer and Jeythoon Beevi and thereby, created a false title. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioners are the purchaser of the disputed property. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 419, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 109, 130B of IPC, in Crime No. 40 of 2025. He would further submit that the petitioners have no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that though the alleged occurrence took place on 27.02.2013, FIR has been lodged only on 11.08.2025 belatedly and the petitioners are only the purchaser of the property and the accused sold the property to these petitioners and the petitioners have no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
