The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 05.12.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 4(2), 5(f), 6 of POCSO Act and 351 (2) of BNS Act, 2023, in Crime No.07 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The prosecution case is that the petitioner had sexually assaulted the victim on several occasions and that, on 30.12.2025 at about 08.30 p.m., the petitioner entered the victim's residence and committed penetrative sexual assault. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 05.12.2025. This is the second petition for bail. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.11510 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that though the petitioner has no previous case and charge sheet has been filed before the concerned Court after the completion of investigation, considering the grave nature of offence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that the statement of victim under Section 183 of BNSS was recorded; that after completion of investigation, charge sheet has also been filed before the concerned Court and the same is posted for the appearance of the accused; that the petitioner has no previous case as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
