ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/A1 & A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 9(B)(1)(a) of the Explosive Act, 1884, in Crime No.129 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, on 28.04.2026 at about 12.45 hours, the revenue officials conducted inspection, at that time, they found that the petitioners and other accused persons were in illegal possession crackers. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and the petitioners have no previous cases and no one sustained any injuries. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and the petitioners have no previous cases and no one sustained any injuries and the petitioners were in illegal possession of
