ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 118(1) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.43 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the farmer and currently cultivating paddy in his field situated in Pathukadu. On 05.02.2026, at about 10.15 a.m., the defacto complainant and his son involved in spraying medicine in their paddy field. When the defacto complainant went to the well to bring water for preparing medicine and returned to paddy field, at that time, the petitioner came opposite side in the same path and pushed him down. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant's son, the petitioner used inappropriate words against the defacto complainant and his son and attacked them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous cases. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and most of the investigation might have been completed and hence, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate,
