2. The case of the prosecution is that using a mobile app. the accused persons and the defacto complainant became friends. The accused persons asked the defacto complainant to come to a particular place to meet him through his mobile phone. Thereafter, the accused persons jointed together and assaulted the defacto complainant and taken away a sum of Rs.2,700/- from his pocket and also forced him to transfer a sum of Rs.10,000/- to one of the accused's account and also threatened him with deadly weapons. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Co-accused were released on bail. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner only brutally attacked the defacto complainant and grabbed money from him.

Crl.O.P.(MD)No.11317 of 2026

The petitioner has no previous case against him. Investigation in this case is still pending. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, nobody was sustained injuries in this case, already co-accused was granted anticipatory bail, the petitioner has no previous case and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Alangulam, Tenkasi District, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police at 10.30 a.m. on every Saturday, for a period of four weeks, thereafter as and when required for interrogation:
