ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 467, 468, 420, 294(b) and 506(1) of IPC in Crime No. 168 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that in order to arrange job in TNEB, the defacto complainant gave money to the petitioners. After receiving the money, the petitioners issued fake appointment order to the defacto complainant. Later, the defacto complainant came to know that the said appointment order is fake. Hence, the petitioners neither arranged job nor returned the money. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a part of the amount has been repaid to the defacto complainant. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 467, 468, 420, 294(b) and 506(1) of IPC in Crime No. 168 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioners have no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that though the alleged occurrence took place on 17.03.2022; however FIR has been registered only on 06.06.2026 and a part of the amount has already been repaid and also no previous case is pending against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the
