The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 221, 296(b), 132, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women (Amendment) Act, 2002 in Crime No. 102 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.04.2026, during election, the other accused created disturbance stating that he should be appointed as booth agent, due to which police personnel attempted to prevent and control the situation, the accused obstructed the police from performing their duty and pushed them aside. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner in unnamed accused and co-accused was granted bail. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 221, 296(b), 132, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women (Amendment) Act, 2002 in Crime No. 102 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has one previous case and the same was referred. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the petitioner in unnamed accused and co-accused was granted bail and though the petitioner has one previous case, the same was already referred, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
