The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC in Crime No. 118 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant has acquainted with the petitioner through A2, who is the own brother of the defacto complainant. In order to obtain job, the defacto complainant gave a sum of Rs.5,72,100/- to the petitioner. However, the petitioner neither arranged job nor returned the money. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has been arrayed as accused, only on the basis that the petitioner is the friend of A2. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC in Crime No. 118 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the alleged occurrence took place in the year 2022; however, FIR has been lodged only on 05.06.2026, even according to the prosecution, A2 is none other than the own brother of the defacto complainant and the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
