The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 3(1) of TNPPDL Act, 1992 in Crime No. 559 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, on 11.04.2026, the petitioner and other accused trespassed into the disputed property and damaged the fence. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that for the very same occurrence, two FIRs have been registered. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 3(1) of TNPPDL Act, 1992 in Crime No. 559 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner one previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that there is a property dispute between the parties and the petitioner has no previous case except the case registered immediately after this incident, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a
