The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 75(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 142 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 04.06.2026 at about 2.30 p.m., when the defacto complainant was doing agricultural work at his house, the petitioner went to her house and abused her in filthy language and misbehaved with her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 75(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 142 of 2026. He would further submit that nobody was injured in this case and the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that there is a dispute between the parties, nobody was injured in this case and though the alleged occurrence took place on 04.06.2026, the FIR has been registered only on 11.06.2026 and also the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a
