The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 329(3), 303(2), 296(b) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 175 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.06.2026 at about 11.00 p.m., the petitioner and other accused were illegally excavated and transported sand worth about Rs.2,00,000/- from the defacto complainant's patta land. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and this petitioner has been arrayed as accused since he is the owner of the vehicle which was involved in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 329(3), 303(2), 296(b) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 175 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has five previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the quantity of material involved in this case and also considering the facts that this petitioner is only the owner of the vehicle and though the petitioner has five previous cases, in all cases the petitioner was granted bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
