The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 27.04.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 109(1) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No. 320 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.04.2026, the accused persons assaulted and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, and made an attempt on his life. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 27.04.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD), No.11969 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered against the accused persons. The petitioner has 16 previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and further considering the fact that though the petitioner has 16 previous cases to his credit, he has already been enlarged on bail in those cases, as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
