The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.05.2026, for the offences punishable under Sections 109(1) of BNS, in Crime No.193 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.05.2025 at about 4.30 p.m., the accused persons come by covering their faces with masks and assaulted the defacto complainant with a help of a bill hook and caused injuries to him and also threatened him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and she was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is in custody from 12.05.2026 and the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD), No.11534 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. Due to the previous dispute, the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, the defacto complainant sustained injuries on his hand. Though there is no previous case against the petitioner, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital; that there is family dispute between the parties; that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and also considering the fact that the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
