The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 07.06.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 76, 78, 296(b), 115(2), 351(3) of BNS and Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No. 176 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.06.2026, while the defacto complainant was at home, the accused trespassed into her house, tried to molest her and when she resisted for the same, he assaulted her with wooden log. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and due to money dispute, he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 07.06.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered against the accused. The petitioner has no previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that there was a money dispute between the parties and the injured was discharged from the hospital and further considering the fact that the petitioner has previous no cases to his credit, as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
