The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 26.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Section 310(4) of BNS in Crime No. 312 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 25.05.2026, while the respondent were conducting patrol duty, the accused persons were standing in a suspicious manner and on enquiry, it was revealed that the accused persons were planned to commit dacoity on deserted shops situated near the highway. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 26.05.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.11538 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, who is a police official, the case has been registered against the accused persons. The petitioner has 1 previous case under NDPS Act. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that the alleged complaint has been lodged by the defacto complainant only on suspicion and there is no complaint received from the public and further considering the fact that though the petitioner has previous case to his credit, he has already been granted bail in that case, as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following
