4. The petitioner's husband served in the respondent – Transport Corporation as a Driver and died in harness on 10.08.2012. However, in view of certain disputes regarding the conferment of permanent status and the pendency of litigation before this Court, including in W.A.(MD) No.2167 of 2025, the terminal benefits of the petitioner's husband could not be disbursed. Further, the petitioner has not submitted the requisite Form No.59 to enable the respondent – Transport Corporation to process the payment of the terminal benefits. Therefore, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition seeking a mandamus directing the respondent – Transport Corporation to disburse the entire terminal benefits.

5. Learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent – Transport Corporation, on instructions, submitted that unless and until the petitioner submits Form-59, the process for release of the terminal benefits cannot be undertaken by the respondent – Transport Corporation.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that Form-59 contains an undertaking not to take any legal proceedings against the respondent – Transport Corporation with regard to the payment of terminal benefits. If such an undertaking is given, the petitioner's right in the pending proceedings relating to the claim for permanent status of her husband and other consequential benefits would be adversely affected.

7. Taking into consideration the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the considered view that this writ petition can be disposed of with the following directions:

- (i) The petitioner is permitted to submit Form-59 without prejudice to his rights in the pending proceedings. In the event, the petitioner submits the same, the respondent – Transport Corporation shall process the same and release the terminal benefits, without prejudice to the rights of the petitioner in the pending proceedings, as expeditiously as possible, at any rate, within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
- (ii) It is further made clear that if the petitioner succeeds in the pending proceedings, it will be open to the petitioner to seek revision of the pensionary benefits in terms of the order that may be passed in the pending proceedings.
