C-24B. For Bail in Crime No. 33 of 2026 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/A5, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4), 319(2), 336(2), 336(3), 337, 61(2) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 and 66D of Information Technology Act, in Crime No.33 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons have threatened the defacto complainant and her husband that they are under digital arrest and directed them to send amounts to various bank account numbers. Due to which, they transferred a sum of Rs.83,65,000/-. The petitioner herein collected bank account numbers from various persons and has given the same to the accused, who utilised the said bank accounts for illegal money transfers. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.05.2026. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner has two previous cases, which are not similar kind of offences. He would further submit that the investigation is still pending and the offences are grave in nature. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the nature of offences levelled against the petitioner and considering the fact that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and though the petitioner has two previous cases, the same are not similar kind of offences and in all cases, he was released on bail and the material part of the investigation might have been completed and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 19.05.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of
