2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.05.2026, the accused persons wrongfully restrained the defacto complainant and abused them in filthy language, assaulted them with knife and caused multiple injuries to them. When the defacto complainant's brother intervened and tried to rescue them, the accused persons also criminally intimidated them with dire consequences and fled away from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. The petitioner along with other accused persons brutally attacked the defacto complainant parties and made severe injuries. The injured were discharged from the hospital. The petitioner has no previous case. Investigation is still pending. He vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
