The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 20.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(B) of NDPS, Act, 1985 in Crime No. 197 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information, on 20.05.2026, at about 12.45 p.m., on receipt of secret message, the respondent police went to Pillaiyar Kovil Street, SS Colony and on suspicion, they conduct search in the while sack bag held by the first accused and found 2.000 kgs of ganga. On enquiry, A1 confessed that he is selling the contraband with the help of A2 and A3/petitioner. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that based on the confession of co-accused he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 20.05.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.11544 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent would submit that the accused persons found in illegal possession of 2 kgs of ganja, due to which the case has been registered. He would further submit that though the petitioner has no previous cases, considering the stage of investigation and the nature of grave offence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and quantity of contraband involved in this case is not a commercial quantity and considering the fact that the petitioner has been arrested in this case, based on the confession of co-accused and he has no previous cases to his credit and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
