The petitioner/Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 02.06.2026 for the offences punishable under Section 25(1A) of Arms Act, in Crime No.92 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 02.06.2026 at about 14.00 hours, while the respondent were in patrol duty near Kovilpatti, they found the accused was having long sword and trying to escape on seeing the police. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. No one injured in the alleged occurrence. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 02.06.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.11941 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, who is a police official the case has been registered against the accused persons. He would further submit that the petitioner has 17 previous cases at his credit and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence, though the petitioner has previous cases at his credit, all the cases are not in similar and he has got bail in the previous cases registered against him and considering the fact the no one injured in the occurrence and no complaint received from the public about the alleged occurrence as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
