2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner sent text message to the sister of the defacto complainant. When the mother of the defacto complainant questioned the petitioner, regarding the said message, a verbal altercation ensued between the parties. In which the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant with an iron rod, thereby causing injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The verbal altercation was arose only due to misunderstanding. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. There was wordy altercation between the parties. In which, both parties sustained injuries. Therefore, counter case has also been registered. The injured was also discharged from the hospital. The petitioner has no previous case. Investigation is still pending. He vehemently opposed the
