The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 21(1) of MMDR Act, 1957 in Crime No. 227 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information, on 20.05.2026, when the respondent police were in patrol duty, they found that 36 units of sand was stored in a private land belonged to one Sikkandar through a lorry and JCB. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has been arrayed as accused only based on the fact that the petitioner is the owner of the lorry, which involved in this occurrence. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 21(1) of MMDR Act, 1957 in Crime No. 227 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that even according to the prosecution, the petitioner has only stored the minerals in the private patta land and apart from that there is no allegation against the petitioner and the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
