ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners / Accused, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 13.06.2026 for the offences punishable under Section 310(4) of BNS in Crime No. 233 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons gathered together with deadly weapons and chilli powder and made preparation for committing dacoity. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that nobody was injured in the occurrence. The petitioners have been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 13.06.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioners.

CRL OP(MD). No.11947 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered against the accused persons. The petitioners have previous cases to their credits. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that nobody was injured in the occurrence and further considering the fact that though the petitioners have previous cases to their credit, they have got bail in the previous cases registered against them, as well as taking into account of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
