ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.06.2026 for the offences punishable under Section 123 of BNS and Section 24(1) of the Cigarette and other Tobacco Products Act, 2003 in Crime No. 204 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.06.2026 at 3.30 hours, on receipt of secret information, the respondent police were conducted search in the shop of the petitioner at Kattarangulam and found that the accused persons were in possession of banned tobacco products weighing 18 kgs. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the alleged contraband was recovered by the prosecution. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.06.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the accused persons were found in possession of banned tobacco products. The petitioner has 4 previous cases to his credit. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that the alleged contraband was recovered by the prosecution and further considering the fact that though the petitioner has previous cases to his credit, he has already been granted bail in those cases, as well as the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined
