2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the Advocate Clerk.

The defacto complainant conducted a civil suit, which was ended in favour of her. All the legal remuneration has also been paid to the advocate. But, the petitioner, who is the advocate clerk, demanded more money from the defacto complainant's husband. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. The petitioner demanded more money as advocate fees from the defacto complainant and also harassed her. The petitioner has one previous case. Investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before the concerned court.
