2. The case of the prosecution is that the due to previous enmity, petitioner joining hands with five other accused throwing kerosene bottles with fire upon the defacto complainant's house, abused him in filthy language and also attacked him. Hence, the defacto complainant lodged this complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that since the petitioner is the brother of the main accused, he was implicated in this case. He is in custody from 01.06.2026 and ready to abide any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel appearing for the State reiterated the prosecution case and reported that there are totally 6 accused in this case, the petitioner is A3 and has no previous case, no one was injured in this case and no property recovered and damaged. He opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on
