the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.175 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.04.2026 due to previous enmity, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and assaulted them, thereby he sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are in no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Due to previous enmity this case has been lodged. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. Due to previous enmity, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant. The second petitioner has one previous case and the other petitioners have no previous case. Investigation is still pending. He vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, the injured was discharged from the hospital and though the second accused has one previous case, he was already granted bail in that case, there is no previous case against the other petitioners, and also considering all the facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tenkasi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
