CRL OP(MD). No.12574 of 2026

PETITION FOR BAIL Under Sec.483 of BNSS

PRAYER :-

C-24B. For Bail in Crime No. 20 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police...

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/A9, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 15.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 419, 420, 423, 465, 467, 468 and 471 of IPC, in Crime No.20 of 2021 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The allegation against the petitioner is that totally there are nine accused in this case and the petitioner is ranked as A9. He joining with other accused involved in fabrication deed of power of attorney, which was subsequently, dealt with by the other accused persons. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is ranked as A9 in this case. It is alleged that he impersonated the deceased land owner. He would further submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident, he is ready to cooperate with investigation, the case is of the year 2021 and the co-accused was arrested and released on bail. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 15.05.2026. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned counsel for State of TN (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that totally there are nine accused in this case and the petitioner is ranked as A9, the co-accused was arrested and released on bail in the year 2021 itself. He would further submit that the petitioner recently returned from Singapore and hence, he was arrested recently. He would further submit that the investigation is still pending and the offences are grave in nature. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the nature of offences levelled against the petitioner and considering the fact that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail and the case is pending from the year 2021 and though the petitioner has been arrested only on 15.05.2026, the period of incarceration is nearly 45 days, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, this petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Trichy, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which she is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which she is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
