ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 351(2) and 305(a)(NH) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 129 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between the parties, on the date of occurrence, the petitioners and other accused came to the residence of the defacto complainant, forcibly pushed him, criminally intimidated him with threats of murder and took away his laptop and mobile phone. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the entire allegation is as against A1 and the petitioners are only the friend of A1. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 351(2) and 305(a)(NH) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 129 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioners have no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that the entire allegation is as against A1 and the petitioners are only the friend of A1 and also no previous case is pending against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
