The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No. 903 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.06.2026, when the defacto complainant, along with his team, was on patrol, they found that the petitioner was in illegal possession of M sand without any valid permit. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner was in illegal possession of M sand, due to which a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 903 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has one previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the quantity and nature of minerals involved in this case and also considering the facts that though the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vallioor,
