ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 121(1), 109(1), 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 100 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on a phone call, defacto complainant, who is SSI of Police, went to the spot while the accused persons assaulted one Chelladuraichi and her husband and warned the same, due to which a wordy qurrel arose between the defacto complainant and the accused persons. Thereafter, the accused scolded the victim and assaulted her and in the scuffle, the accused pulled her and caused fracture injury and also prevented the defacto complainant from discharging his official duty. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 121(1), 109(1), 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 100 of 2026. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioners have seven, seven and five previous cases, respectively. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and though the petitioners have some previous cases, in all cases the petitioners were granted bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Alangulam, Tenkasi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
