2. The case of the prosecution is that on 06.06.2026 at about 06.30 p.m., when the defacto complainant was coming near Manjanakara Street, Madurai, the accused persons are committed robbery of mobile phone from him and also assaulted him by the hands. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The property was recovered. The petitioners have no previous case. Investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioners.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on
